

► SHORT INFORMATION ◀

Name: Dragos Balaican

Position in International Association for Danube Research (IAD):

Co-Leader of the expert group: Danube Delta and Fore Delta.

Affiliation: "Danube Delta" National Institute for Research and Development (<http://www.ddni.ro/en>), Tulcea - Romania.

Main research field: Biodiversity Conservation and Sustainable Natural Resource Development.

Interests: Danube/Delta, ecological restoration, wetland use, biodiversity, citizen observatories, land use/cover changes, human impact in Danube Delta, etc.

Additional information:

Scientific Researcher specializing in General Economics in the Department of Biodiversity Conservation and Sustainable Natural Resource Development at the "Danube Delta" National Research and Development Institute.

The focus beside project activities on biodiversity conservation and sustainable wetland use, is on field survey studies and environmental protection, being further here involved in developing training services of knowledge transfer, developing skills, attitude and behaviors

Contact: Dragos.Balaican@ddni.ro, Danube Delta National Institute, 165 Babadag Street, Tulcea, Județul Tulcea, RO-820112, Romania.